English Teaching in Southern China!

Spring 2009 through Spring 2010

China has a population of 1.5 billion people – one-fifth of the world's population. Already a major trading partner with America and the West, it will continue to grow in importance and significance in the years ahead. Educators and related professionals who are interested in anthropology, political and social science, education, business, economics, foreign language, ethnic studies, and international study will find teaching in China an exciting part of their international education and resumé.

G&L Business and English Academy is located in Yangshuo, a city along the Li River near Guilin in Southern China. With comfortable climate, evergreen vegetation, abundant rivers and jade-like hills - it is reputed as a fairyland under heaven. Yangshuo is not only famous for its karst and clear water, but also for its cultural atmosphere. Its International Streets include Internet cafes, galleries, small shops, and restaurants.
