Who are we?

Consultants for Global Programs (CGP) is a non-profit international education service organization that provides personalized opportunities for students, faculty, related professionals, and other interested individuals to participate in international experiences.

CGP's mission is international awareness, understanding and peace through personal involvement. "This world is actually a global village, and we should live accordingly." CGP works only in countries where we have personal experience, enabling us to offer programs tailored to individual needs.

What does CGP do?

Study Abroad Programs...

We are working on a variety of international education programs in China, Cyprus, South Africa, and the USA.

Seminars & Workshops...

CGP has offered international educational Asian trade and commerce seminars in the Oakland, CA area and international Bicommunal leadership workshops in Cyprus, focusing on "US Administration Leadership Practices."

Who Participates in our Programs?

Teachers and Professionals...

We offer both short-and long-term teaching experiences abroad for qualified students, faculty, and related professionals.

We offer contracts for related professionals in most of the countries that we offer programs in as well as professional opportunities, including research and teaching.

Students and Adults...

CGP works with 38 US and international Colleges and Universities to enable students and adults to have personalized educational experiences abroad.

Our Goals...

Our goal is to provide major international educational opportunities for the US and a related audience in providing programming that is not normally available elsewhere. We help strengthen ties between people, cities, and countries for the exchange of ideas, beliefs, and friendships, as well as cultural experiences, understanding and awareness.

Current Projects...

- Humboldt Area Foundation Community Response Grant to offer Chinese and American comparative education workshops and classes to the Northern Humboldt Administrative Council teachers and administrators, and the Eureka Arcata Business Community: Spring 2009

- Southern China Interactive English Teaching Programs in Guangxi Autonomous Region, PR China. Opportunities to teach Chinese students, teachers and related professionals, including
